Certainly! Seattle is a fantastic city with a vibrant food scene. Here are some local restaurants you might consider visiting during your stay:

“I'm going to be in Seattle for a meeting in May. what are some local restaurants I can't miss? I want something creative and not just a fancy steakhouse”

1. Nue: Located at 1519 14th Ave, Seattle, WA 98122, Nue offers a casual dining experience with food and drink inspired by international travels. The diverse inspirations range from the tascas of the Iberian Peninsula to the colorful markets of Asia. Expect surprising and delicious dishes in an unassuming atmosphere. Highly recommended for those looking to try something new and exciting<sup>1</sup>.
2. Beth's Cafe: Situated at 7311 Aurora Ave N, Seattle, WA 98103, Beth's Cafe is an absolute late-night staple. Known for its “greasy spoon” vibe, it features customer-created art on the walls, including napkin drawings and dirty Seattle quotes. Don't miss their famous 12-egg omelet, which was even featured on the TV show “Man Vs. Food”
3. Walla Walla Farms Café and Catering: Located at 601 Union St Ste 224a, Seattle, WA 98101, this cafe offers farm-fresh breakfasts, lunches, and dinners. Their menu caters to various dietary preferences, including gluten-free, vegan, and paleo options. Enjoy a delightful meal made with seasonal and regional ingredients<sup>1</sup>.
4. Aviyah's Creative Kitchen: Aviyah, a seasoned personal chef, offers personal chef services and private cooking lessons in Seattle. If you're looking for a unique culinary experience, consider exploring Aviyah's offerings<sup>1</sup>.

Remember to make reservations in advance, as these popular spots tend to fill up quickly. Bon appétit, and enjoy your time in Seattle!

Seattle has many good restaurants, including places for seafood, Italian food, and other top restaurants. Here are some options:

- Terra Plata: Farm-to-table restaurant on Capitol Hill
- Herb & Bitter Public House: Gastro pub on Capitol Hill
- Vendemmia: Leschi Italian restaurant
- Commune: Some say this place has some of the best bartenders in town
- Herbfarm: Some say this place has a culinary art experience
- Bar del Corso: Pizza with a blackened crust and sweet dollops of cheese
- The Walrus and the Carpenter: Serves several varieties of Washington oysters, seafood dishes like raw albacore tuna with Meyer lemon sauce

Seattle also has many steakhouses, including upscale steakhouses, steakhouses with other options, and steakhouses with a butcher.

- Pranksters discovered that a local car dealer's AI chatbot could be used as a way to access ChatGPT.
- People shared attempts to trick the chatbot into selling them a new Chevy for as little as $1.
- Fullpath, the chatbot's creator, told Business Insider it was improving the bot based on the pranks.
